4.4.2) The Vice-President shall be Chairman of the Disciplinary Action Committee.

4.5) Duties of the Treasurer

4.5.1) The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all the funds and securities of the Association, and shall deposit said funds in the name of the Association in such financial institutions as the Board of Directors may elect.

4.5.2) The Treasurer shall sign and execute all contracts in the name of the Association when countersigned by the President. The Treasurer shall also sign all checks, drafts, notes, and orders for the payment of money, which shall be duly authorized or ratified by the Board of Directors.

4.5.3) The Treasurer shall at all reasonable times exhibit his books and accounts to any Officer or member of the Association.

4.5.4) At the end of each corporate year, the Treasurer shall have an audit of the accounts, made by a committee appointed by the President and shall present such audit in writing at the annual meeting of the members, at which time the Treasurer shall also present an annual report setting forth in full the financial condition of the Association.

4.6) Duties of the Secretary

4.6.1) The Secretary shall keep the meeting minutes of the Board of Directors and those of the Association.

4.6.2) The Secretary shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct. The Secretary shall keep the membership roll containing the names, alphabetically arranged, of all persons who are members of the Association, showing their places of residence and appropriate contact information.

4.7) Duties of At-Large Members of the Board of Directors

4.7.1) At-large members of the Board of Directors are elected positions and have full voting rights, shall participate on committees, and participate in Association business as agreed by the Board of Directors.

4.8) The Position and Requirements of the Assigner(s)

4.8.1) The GRALOA Assigners for regular season high school and middle school games (the "Regular Season Assigners") shall be recommended for a term of two (2) years by the Board of Directors of GRALOA after the election of any new officers. The selected assignor will be ratified by the membership. The recommendations are to be made from applications received from active members of GRALOA. The GRALOA Assigner(s) are non-voting members of the Board of Directors. Assigner(s) shall be subject to the requirements and stipulations outlined in items b through k contained herein. Members in good standing of GRALOA will be used as preferred officials. Outside officials in special circumstances must be approved by the President and/or the board.

4.8.2) The GRALOA Assigner(s) may not hold an elected GRALOA Board of Director office.

4.8.3) The Assigner(s) shall use Arbiter scheduling software. All assigning of games must be transparent to the board. If requested, the Assigners shall provide reports (in a mutually agreed format) to the President of GRALOA, including the following information:

- 1) games by official
- 2) level of games by official
- 3) games by official by location
- 4) official availability by date
- 5) dates blocked by official
- 6) assignments declined by official
- 7) accepted assignments turned back by official
- 8) no shows or late arrivals by official
- 9) potential conflict of interest by official
- 10) rosters of lacrosse officials registered with the Assigners

4.8.4) Assigner(s) shall not set the rates or fees for which GRALOA members will receive pay to officiate games. All officiating fees are to be negotiated by the GRALOA President, or an appointed member(s) of the board.

4.8.5) The Assigners must endeavor to make assignments that further the education, training, exposure, and familiarity with the game of lacrosse and officiating of the sport of lacrosse.

4.8.6) The Assigners must endeavor to make the best possible assignments in regard to the level of the contest and the level of the officials in order to provide the most appropriate coverage. Assigning should be based on tier of school and level of official within the GRALOA association. Tier 1 officials should be prioritized for Tier 1 games. A list of schools with tier ranking will be provided as well as official rankings based on assignor and board recommendation.

4.8.7) The Assigners must endeavor to have as many games fully covered as possible with the appropriate and requisite number of member in good standing GRALOA officials. Any use of outside officials must be approved by the president or the board.

4.8.8) The Assigners shall provide a listing of those schools, programs, associations and conferences for which services have been contracted or agreed upon.

4.8.9) The use of nonqualified GRALOA members is not sanctioned by GRALOA.

4.8.10) The assignor is not responsible for on field training, rules interpretation, or GRALOA official discipline. Any correspondence from schools, coaches or athletic directors should be directed to the board for further action and response. There are three participants that are nominated or elected as:

1. Rules interpreter

2. Association trainer

3. Disciplinary Action Committee, chaired by the VP

4.8.11) It is the assignor's responsibility to assign during the season the designated (R) as the referee. This is a calculated decision to be made by the assignor based on experience, and overall leadership of the position based on the level of games and corresponding officials.

4.9) Rules Interpreter

4.9.1) The Rules Interpreter is appointed by the Board of Directors and shall keep the Association apprised of all rule changes, interpretations, and points of emphasis as established by the Men's Lacrosse Committee of the NCAA, NFHS, US Lacrosse Youth Council, MHSAA and MYLA.

4.9.2) The Rules Interpreter shall provide the official interpretation on all lacrosse rules.

4.10) Trainer(s)

4.10.1) Trainers are appointed by the Board of Directors and recommended to the MHSAA. They shall coordinate with members of the Association, including but not limited to a Rules Interpreter and any registered clinicians in order to conduct training for novice officials and ongoing classes and clinics for veteran officials.

4.11) Removal and Resignation

4.11.1) Any elected or appointed officer, assigner, trainer or rules interpreter may be removed by the Board of Directors with just cause. In the event of death, resignation, or removal of an officer, the Board of Directors at its discretion may elect or appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term.

ARTICLE V – MANAGEMENT of the ASSOCIATION

5.1) Conflicts

5.11) If there is any conflict between the provisions of the certificate of incorporation and these By-Laws, the provisions of the By-laws shall govern. The Association shall be managed by the elected and appointed members of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

6.1) Amendment Process

6.1.1) These By-Laws can be amended by any regular or special meeting or by electronic transmittal by three/fourths (3/4) vote of the member's present or electronic response, provided notice of the proposed amendment has been sent to each member at least 7 days in advance of the date of the meeting.

6.1.2) By-laws may also be adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors, subject to ratification by GRALOA Membership.

ARTICLE VII - COMMITTEES

7.1) Committee Composition

7.1.1) Each committee shall be comprised of between one and seven members, as appointed by the President, who is an ex-officio member of each committee.

7.2) Special Committees

7.2.1) The President shall appoint special committees as necessary. A special committee shall terminate at the next annual meeting unless extended by the general membership.

7.3) Nominating Committee

7.3.1) The duties of the Nominating Committee, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall compile a slate of nominations, which shall be presented within a reasonable amount of time prior to and at the annual membership meeting for the purpose of the election of the Board of Directors of the Association.

7.4) Disciplinary Action Committee, (DAC)

7.4.1) The purpose of the DAC is to ensure that the membership maintains the standards set forth by the Association.

7.4.2) Rarely, it may be necessary to investigate the behavior of a member of the Association, only in so far as it relates to a specific incident before, during or after a game, scrimmage, meeting or event regulated or in conjunction with the activities of the Association and its members.

7.4.3) Questionable behavior by an official must be brought to the attention of the Board of Directors, in written format, within a reasonable period of time of the incident. Anyone may file a report, but they must identify themselves, provide witnesses or other supporting evidence. A GRALOA member must file a report regarding another member within 72 hours of the incident. The Chairman of the DAC (voted by the Board for each hearing), in consultation with the Board of Directors, has the responsibility of determining whether the alleged infraction is (1) a possible violation of current Association standards and requires further review or (2) is verifiable beyond a reasonable doubt. If the complaint does not meet the criteria, it will be dismissed and a brief report shall be filed by the Chairman of the DAC.

7.4.4) Upon receipt of a report found to have met the above criteria, the Chairman of the DAC will direct members of the DAC to gather all necessary data. A meeting will be scheduled and when convened the data shall be reviewed, testimony as appropriate shall be heard and a vote shall be taken. A simple majority vote shall determine the decision by the DAC.

7.4.5) Disciplinary action of an Association member shall be the sole domain of the DAC. All voting members of the Board of Directors except the President shall comprise the DAC. Witnesses and other individuals who may be of assistance may be invited by the Chairman of the DAC, but will have neither voting privileges nor be present during voting and deliberation. The proceedings shall be private or public at the discretion of the suspect official. The voting will be confidential and the results will be reported to the Assigner(s) of the Association and/or the membership at the discretion of the DAC.

7.4.6) An official found to be guilty of an infraction is allowed to have an appeal. Said appeal must be made to the President within 72 hours of the original judgment of the DAC, and will be heard by the President and the non-voting members of the GRALOA Board of Directors (the "Board of Appeals") The Board of Appeals can direct the DAC to reverse, review, reduce or suspend the penalties and/or original judgment.

7.4.7) Penalties or actions of the DAC may include but not be limited to:

- 1) Notification to membership, MHSAA, and lacrosse assigners of infraction and judgment
- 2) Probation.
- 3) Recommendation to assigners that the official receives a reduction in schedule
- 4) Removal from roster
